Dear all,
Following our conference call from yesterday; Ms.Azano notifies me that The demo to the Secretary of Defence and President will take place next Friday. As per our conversation from few min ago, I approved him that NSO will be for testing from Tuesday or the latest Wed.

They call me back after my conferation; and asked to do the best to be at Tuesday, since the Secretary of Defence ask for demo a day before the president ( At Thursday ), and for the President at Friday.

They need list of names since they would like to do hotel reservations.
Last quotation was if it is possible to come with two systems

Please advise,

Resheff
